

Quality Policy

Review Display Systems Limited is a specialist supplier of electronic flat panel displays, touch sensors and industrial embedded system solutions, encompassing the distribution of standard component parts from some of the world's leading suppliers through to the design and manufacture of entire bespoke display and embedded solutions for a wide range of industrial, medical and commercial applications. These markets also require us to provide long term after sales support including a repair and service capability covering all products.

Our Quality Management Systems (QMS) is in accordance with the requirements of ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 13485:2016

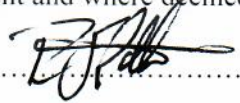

Top management is committed to:

- Satisfying applicable requirements by ensuring that customers and applicable statutory and regulatory requirements are understood controlled and consistently met.
- Continual improvement of the QMS by ensuring the risks and opportunities that can affect conformity of products and services and the ability to enhance customer satisfaction are determined, addressed and this focus is maintained, whilst achieving the overall success of the Company.

Top management shall:

- Take accountability for the effectiveness of the QMS.
- Ensure the quality policy and quality objectives established for the QMS are compatible with the context and strategic direction of the Company.
- Provide a framework for creating and reviewing objectives set, these objectives shall be measurable and consistent with this policy.
- Ensure all relevant legislation and regulations are fully met.
- Promote the use of a process approach and risk-based thinking.
- Ensure the resources needed for the QMS to achieve its intended results, are available, including training, support and encouragement.
- Provide sufficient effective communication, information, instruction, training and supervision to enable all employees to fulfil their defined functions.

All of the above shall be conducted in a cost effective and timely manner, and in accordance with the highest professional standards for the overall success of the Company. This policy will be communicated to all employees and organisations working for or on behalf of RDS Ltd and other interested parties. Employees and other organisations are expected to co-operate and assist in the implementation of this policy. This policy will be reviewed annually by senior management and where deemed necessary will be amended and re-issued.
